Thank You!

thank you

We would like to extend our sincere gratitude to the Emmet-Chalmers Fire Protection District for their generous donation of food and basic supplies to our Emergency Cupboard. With costs rising and resources becoming more limited, these contributions will make a meaningful difference for the individuals and families we serve. We are truly thankful that you chose our Emergency Cupboard as the recipient of your food drive and appreciate your kindness and support in caring for our community.

January Sermon Series

In January, our Traditional Service will explore the series Jesus—ed, beginning January 11 and continuing through Ash Wednesday in February, focusing on Jesus' early ministry and understanding his name as a verb—an invitation into learning and formation. The Xperience Service will focus on the theme of Promises, reflection on God's enduring faithfulness throughout Scripture as we begin the new year together in worship.

A Special Thank You

We were delighted to receive a lovely Christmas card from the residents and staff of the Everly House, wishing us a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. Thank you for thinking of us and sharing such a kind and encouraging message, it truly brightened our season!

May His love shine on you at Christmas and always.

∞
Merry Christmas
&
Happy New Year!
