Kelly's Korner

As you can see, Anne and I are off enjoying God's creation at the beach and finding some peace in our life. How do you enjoy the creation? How do you find peace? Sometimes, it does take getting out of your normal surroundings and processes. And, yet, we should be able to find such goodness in our everyday lives. Whether it be prayer/alone time with God or intentional conversation with friends or serving the needs of others in our community, we are to find peace. Although I'm away, I look forward to our fall activities as outlined in last week's article. I'm excited to come back and start our sermon series on Joshua. And, yet, I'll not be in too much of a hurry to come home. Peace to you.
See you Sunday!

Kelly

Mark your calendar for October 16 and 17—the dates of our Fall Festival.

Jill Jones will be chairing this event this year and has many ideas for creative fun activities.

She will need a lot of help so keep your calendar clear and when she calls, say “yes”.

It will be lots of fun!

Third Thursdays in September falls on September 17. 7:30 p.m. at Chubby's. The October date is October 15. All men of the church are invited!

Our College group will begin meeting in September. The first meeting will be held on Monday, September 7, at 8:00 p.m. in the church parlor. The second meeting is scheduled for September 20 at 8:00 p.m. in the church parlor.

The Elders will hold their annual retreat on September 19.

ATTENTION: LADIES OF FCC

Every lady of the church is invited to join others on a train trip to Chicago on September 23.

The train departs Macomb at 7:00 a.m. and Chicago for the return trip at 5:55 p.m., arriving in Macomb at 9:25 p.m. Tickets are fairly reasonable if you purchase them in advance. Seniors will receive a discount.

Please contact Ellen Tingley if you would like to join the group.

If you have indicated interest in going or are just thinking about it, please meet in the room across from the minister's office this Sunday, September 6, at 10:00 a.m.

Chancel Choir will begin practicing on Wednesday, September 9 and sing in worship on September 13.

If you love to sing, please think about joining our choir; we would love to include you!

You can mention your interest to Bill Froom or just attend practice on Wednesday evenings at 6:30 p.m.
